

Illinois Families of Fallen Service Member Task Force

in partnership with Survivor Outreach Services

September 25, 2010 • 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Registration begins at 9:00 am • First Division Museum, Cantigny Park 1 s 151 Winfield Road
Wheaton, Illinois 61089 • www.cantigny.org/visit

Connections at Cantigny: Bringing Families of the Fallen Together

- Designed for all ages – children, teens, spouses & parents
- Sessions on single parenting, financial planning & preparing for the holidays
- Share ideas for future events
- Create a traveling memorial
- Family friendly activities including art, music & wellness
- Counselors & child care will be available

11:00 am - Join us for a special program with special guest speakers, including Elmo from Sesame Street & a presentation of “When Families Grieve,” an initiative developed by Sesame Workshop to provide resources in support of families with young children coping with the death of a parent.

™/© 2010 Sesame Workshop. All Rights Reserved.

This is the first in a series of events around the state and an opportunity to tell us what would be helpful for your family at future events.

For registration or questions, contact Wendy Palmer at 312.726.1008

(Space is limited)

Complimentary for all attendees: lunch, museum admission, parking

Illinois Families of Fallen Service Member Task Force Agencies Include:

Barr-Harris Children's Grief Center
La Rabida Children's Hospital Chicago Child
Trauma Center
The Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis
The Chicago School of Professional Psychology
Health & Disability Advocates

Children's Research Triangle
Illinois Childhood Trauma Coalition
IDHS, Division of Mental Health
Illinois Network of Child Care Resource & Referral
Agencies, (INCCRRA)
Institute for Therapy Through the Arts

McCormick Foundation
Michael Reese Health Trust
National Child Traumatic Stress Network
Northwestern University
Survivor Outreach Services
Zero to Three